DREW STAYS CHIEF, REPLY OF COLBOURN

Commissioner Kills Rumor of Removal of Head of Police Department; Many Inquiries Made Involving Officers

Patrolman Who Was Sought is Found Ill At Home; Denies Bribe Taking; Girl Refuses Story She Saw Money Pass

Chief of Police James T. Drew will not be removed. This was the announcement of Commissioner Frank Colbourn this morning in reply to rumors that political interests are desirous of Drew's official decapitation and are "stirring up graft investigations." The statement marked the high note in the second day of the graft investigations in the city hall. The new developments in the case are:

Findings of the missing policeman, Michael Connolly, at his home, where he is reported ill with pneumonia, and denial by him that he accepted a bribe from Jack White of Santa Rosa.

Denial by Miss Veronica Steele, companion of White, that she saw any money passed between White and Connolly when the latter decided to release him after arrest for violation of a traffic ordinance.

CITATION FOR WHITE

Citation issued by Chief Drew for White, an employee of the Fageol automobile company at Santa Rosa, now working in Healdsburg, to report by telephone this evening and to appear in Oakland on Saturday next at 4 o'clock.

General denial by police officers that Frank McGuire, attorney, was "tipped" for a remuneration to get the case of A. R. Denike of San Jose, charged with intoxication, on November 4.

Change of statement by McGuire in which he admitted that he was not engaged by a local merchant to represent Denike but was recommended by Antonio Bruzzoni, alleged murderer and cult-mate of Denike.

Corroboration of McGuire's statement by Bruzzoni when interviewed in the county jail by Chief Drew last night.

Investigations of all descriptions occupied the attention of the police heads yesterday, last night and today.

PRISON ATTACHES ARE QUILLED BY COLBOURN.

Yesterday afternoon Chief Drew and Commissioner Colbourn interviewed all attachés of the city prison in an effort to place the blame for the shooting of McGuire for his defense. This was followed by a statement made in a police court by Denike that he had had McGuire fisted on him and was not allowed to secure his own attorney. The interviewed officers denied all knowledge of the affair.

Shortly afterward Lieutenant William F. Woods of Eastern station was called upon to explain the divergence of the two in the arresting officers as to Denike's purpose. First officers to interview him said he was sober and those who saw him later said he was drunk. This was explained by Woods who said he believed Denike quaffed from a flask between the first and second interviews.

Lieutenant Woods also investigated the rumor that Denike had concealed a jug of liquor in a vase near the accident—a jug that Lieutenant Atkinson could not find on the night of the accident. Woods says he has discovered that a garage man in Melrose had found the jug before the policemen and with his friends had consumed it.

GIRL DENIKES SHE SAW MONEY PASSED.

Last night Commissioner Colbourn and Chief Drew interviewed Miss Steele, who denied statements attributed to her that Jack White, her companion, had secured his release by passing. Policeman Connolly the sum of three dollars which was later turned over to the city commissioners. She said that she saw no money passed and heard no talk of money.

Policeman Connolly said that he related White when the latter said he was a traffic officer. He said that White had dirtied his uniform by throwing mud on it in driving, and as he started off threw out a dollar with instructions to "get the uniform cleaned." Connolly averted that he cast the dollar back toward the machine, but does not know whether or not it reached its destination.

Lieutenant William Atkinson, who was with Connolly at the time, said he didn't see the exchange of the money. He was about twenty feet away from the machine at the time, according to his statement.

COLBOURN WARNS MEMBERS OF FORCE.

Commissioner Colbourn had posted on the bulletin board of the police department the following note:

"It has been rumored that certain police officers are making a practice of recommending certain attorneys for defendants charged with crime. Any police officers found guilty of such an offense will be summarily dealt with by me."

City Attorney Leon Gray this morning filed an answer to the charges of Charles Green that he had been falsely imprisoned in his cell for 1920 in Justice Herbert Wren's court. Gray denied all charges. The suit was brought by Chief Drew, Captain Thorold Brown and Lieutenant Michael Colbourn.

PITTSBURG, Kan., Dec. 14.—Headed by the girls' band of Arms, playing martial music, "General" Annie Stovich, the Jeanne d'Arc of the "Amazon army," led her invading hosts, already weary and footsore, into the "enemy country" this afternoon.

Don't Spoil Meet By Fight, Wilson Urges Democrats

By LAWRENCE MARTIN,
United Press Staff Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Woodrow Wilson wants Democratic senators to do nothing which later would leave them open to the charge that they threw obstacles in the way of complete success of the disarmament conference. Democratic senators have been informed.

He has not sent word to them of his opinion directly on the four-power Pacific treaty. But they have been informed that he feels the treaty should be considered in the light of the "sum total accomplishment" of the conference and should be neither condemned nor endorsed until it is clear what measure of disarmament the conference will bring about.

By J. BART CAMPBELL,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Strained relations between Senator Underwood of Alabama and Senator Glass of Virginia threatened today to split the Democratic side of the Senate on the Pacific treaty and other decisions of the armament conference. It was learned authoritatively that Underwood and Glass are "broken" because of the Virginia senator's caustic criticisms of Underwood's attitude as the duly chosen Democratic leader of the Senate.

In British quarters today it was intimated that an agreement already has been reached on the proportion of Japan's share of the 60 per cent ratio and keeping the Mutsu, but that this could not be confirmed in American quarters.

It also was indicated that the naval ratio question is about to be solved.

It is taken as a foregone conclusion that if Japan retains the Mutsu the United States will keep either the Colorado or the Washington, or both, and that Great Britain will be allowed to complete one or two of her super-battleships.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—The disarmament program as finally evolved to-day is a good one, but a condition of status quo as to "Pacific fortifications," the agreement leaving Hawaii, the islands of Japan, Australia and New Zealand free from the provision.

By A. L. BRADFORD,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Eastern subjects with the exception of the Shantung controversy were shunted aside today to make possible the expediting of a settlement of limitations of naval armament questions.

The Far Eastern committee, which includes members concerned in the naval solution, met only briefly and adjourned subject to the call of the chair with the distinct understanding that no naval armament questions could be handled.

The "big three" delegates of the naval conference are rapidly approaching a definite agreement on limitation of naval armament, it was learned.

As the army swept on its way, only increased the pent-up fury of the women. Men viewed the situation with alarm, for it was believed that the women would not deter the strong, high-temperamented foreign women who compose the bulk of the marching hosts. The army began its march at dawn.

Italians, Slavs, Poles, Australians and a big scattering of Americans composed the rank and file.

Mines were quickly "captured" and the workers forced to flee. Others, as they came up out of the mines, were made to kiss an American flag and taken on oath not to return to work until ordered to do so by Alexander Howat. The men promised.

PHILIPPINES USE PACIFIC PACT IN FREEDOM APPEAL

Danger of Aggression: Agreement Answered by Treaty, Application Says.

LEASSED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The four-power Pacific treaty was today signed under the banner of independence for the Philippines in a statement presented to the president by the Philippine resident commissioners, Jaime C. de Yera and Jauro Gabaldon.

The plea for independence, made by the commissioners, declared that in the past the principal objection to independence for the Philippines has been that such an action might make way for Japanese aggression in the island. It was declared that under the terms of the ten-power Pacific treaty such aggression would be impossible, and that therefore the great objection to independence is wiped out and the Philippine people are anxious that the administration take quick action to grant them entire governmental freedom.

Japanese Balk at Pact Signing Told

PARIS, Dec. 14.—The Japanese delegates at the last moment threatened to withhold their signatures from the four-power agreement signed in Washington yesterday. Stephen Lausanne, Washington representative of the Main, cabled his paper today.

Some members of the Japanese delegation, Lausanne said, argued before the signatures were signed that their agreement would affect the whole of Japan while only the possessions of the other countries were implicated.

Mr. Viviani, chief of the French delegation, replied to the Japanese argument, Lausanne quotes him as saying:

"There is reason to sign because the treaty puts you on a level with the greatest people of the earth, who will not allow Japan's feelings to be hurt."

The Japanese then signed.

Where Watson Wars

Senator Tom Watson of Georgia, who has caused such a stir during the last weeks on account of his statements regarding the execution of soldiers in France without a court-martial, had before his committee Colonel W. A. Bethel of the judge advocate general's office, who showed the impossibility of such executions taking place. The hearing was marked by a hot tilt between Senator Watson and Colonel Bethel. ## U. S. SAILOR SLAIN; TAXI MAN JAILED

FIRST AMBER IS DISCOVERED IN NORTH AMERICA

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 14.—Hundreds of tons of supposed gross mica in the Nicola valley of British Columbia have turned out on expert examination to be amber. It was reported here today. This is said to be the first amber discovered on the North American continent.

Payroll Slayer Is Sentenced to Death

CLEVELAND, Dec. 14.—Dominic Benigno, alleged slayer of Wilfred C. Sly and George K. Farmer in a payroll robbery on December 31 last, was today found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to death. Benigno is the third member of a gang of six to be given the death penalty.

When the verdict was read, Mrs. Benigno, who had sat at her husband's side throughout the trial, jumped to her feet, screaming: "I'll go to the chair with my husband. I'm going to kill Cassidy."

Making a dive for James H. Cassidy, assistant prosecutor, she grabbed him by the hair and scratched him about the face and eyes. She was seized by two policemen and carried screaming from the room.

Marine Shot Dead In Taxicab Battle

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—In a desperate fight in a speeding taxicab on Harbor boulevard early today Delbert M. Swegle, a United States marine, was shot and instantly killed and three other men narrowly escaped death as the taxicab swerved from the highway, according to the police of the Los Angeles Harbor.

The shooting occurred, the report stated, when R. Michael, driver of the taxicab, and Albert Morrell, a friend of Michael, believed Swegle and a sailor named Dulgo were trying to hold them up.

It was stated that Swegle was shot through the heart by Michael, the bullet passing entirely through the marine's skull. Dulgo was taken to the Harbor police station, where he is being held.

Two Run Down by Woman in Jitney

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—Two pedestrians were injured, one of them seriously, when a jitney, with a woman driving, ran them down at First and Market streets today. Those hurt were:

W. R. MILLS, 2227 Sutter Street, possible fracture of the skull, concussion of the brain, severe laceration of the head.

J. H. SNAITH, 111 Cherry street, severe cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Mary Daniels of 3934 Mission street was driving the car. She was unable to stop in time to prevent the accident.

Shipping Law Is Opposed by Wood

MANILA, Dec. 14.—Governor-general Wood has cabled Washington recommending that the application of the coastwise shipping law to the Philippines be suspended for the present. Philippine shipping interests and application of the law to the Philippines would mean withdrawal of a number of foreign vessels calling at Manila, as cargo shipped to the United States would have to be carried in American bottoms.

Gardner Off for Leavenworth Term

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 14.—Roy Gardner, bandit, who unexpectedly pleaded guilty Monday to a charge of attempted robbery of a mail car here, November 16, and who was sentenced to a term of 25 years, left yesterday for the prison at Leavenworth, Kan. Elaborate precautions were taken to guard him en route to the Federal penitentiary.

LINKS TO ROADS FROM INTERIOR URGED FOR CITY

U. C. City Planner Also Suggests a Columbus Circle for Oakland.

OAKLAND needs more direct interopolitan thoroughfares connecting the outlying sections of the city with the feeder highways from the interior, in the opinion of Dr. Carol Aronovici, city planning expert of the University of California. Dr. Aronovici delivered the second of a series of lectures on an Eastway community plan at the Hotel Oakland last night. The series is being conducted by the extension division of the university.

The lecture was attended by more than forty property owners and city officials. The next lecture is to be given at the Hotel Oakland next Tuesday night. It will be open to the public.

The conveyance of traffic is the most difficult where there is less regard for the needs of the community, Dr. Aronovici declared and cited Los Angeles, San Francisco and Oakland as having failed to meet this situation satisfactorily.

"COLUMBUS CIRCLE" URGED.

To facilitate the flow of traffic through the congested area at 17th and 18th streets, and surrounding area, in a Columbus circle, New York City, was suggested by the speaker. The traffic flowing from the main thoroughfares into this Broadway congestion, he said, should be handled from the standpoint of distributing strategically that traffic that does not need to go to the center of business, and handling that of travel, both pedestrian and vehicular, that does converge at this point.

The condition of a good street system in a highly centralized area, it was pointed out, can be improved by shortness of travel time, straight sections, speed control through driving areas and classification of traffic. Law would limit the slow-moving business truck to certain zones of travel. He showed that where the vehicles of burden were not in the way heavy auto traffic flowed in a given direction quite easily.

BEGIN WITH CHILDREN.

In the development of a modern city, like Chicago had found it essential to begin with the children in the schools. Dr. Aronovici pointed out. The children were taught to know their city and its needs. When they grew up and took charge of the homes and the city they had certain definite ideas of what their city should be. This was brought about through the use of the uniform manual, and such a system was suggested in Oakland. There are no magazines on city planning in this county, he said, but Spain, Germany and England have town planning mediums of information and education.

There are enough city plan problems within ten blocks of this hotel to keep you studying for ten years," Dr. Aronovici told his audience, "and you can start to solve them by beginning to teach your children."

Error May Nullify Osteopath Petitions

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 14.—Failure of chiropractors and osteopaths of California to follow strictly the provisions of the constitution relating to the circulation of initiatic petitions may result in a nullification of petitions that have qualified to place on the November, 1922, ballot measures creating boards of chiropractic and osteopathic examiners. It became known when Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan announced that he would not call an convention to the legality of the petitions.

The question as to the legality of life petitions arises from the fact that in the affidavits of circulators attached to the petitions the statement is made that the circulator was a "resident of the county" in which signatures were obtained instead of stating that he was a "qualified elector of the county." The affidavit is said to be uncertain in other particulars.

IRISH PARLIAMENT DELAYS ACTION ON TREATY FOR DAY

Heated Words Are Exchanged Between De Valera and Collins.

They sent the delegates to London expecting that they would have an opportunity to criticize and review the results of the conference. Certain alterations were made in the form of the treaty without cabinet sanction.

There was a hot crossing of verbal exchanges between de Valera and Collins which ended with the speaker ruling the former out of order.

De Valera brought up the legality of the Irish delegates' action at London. He declared the Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries were not empowered to approve the pact until the cabinet had given its assent.

Collins replied. He charged de Valera had misrepresented the situation when he made a document which indicated that the delegates had the fullest power to sign regardless of the Sinn Fein cabinet.

COLLINS THREATENS APPRAISAL TO PEOPLE.

Collins threatened to carry the treatise to the Irish people in a pamphlet if Dail Eireann rejected it. "No Dail Eireann, but the Irish people are our masters, and they have a right to know the facts," declared the army chief.

Dail Eireann will meet again at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning when the press and public will be admitted.

A group of Irish students gave de Valera a great reception. There were a number of women present, all in heavy mourning for relatives lost in fighting with the British. They included Mrs. Pearce, whose husband was a victim of the 1916 rebellion; Mrs. Clark, Mrs. O'Callaghan of Cork, and Miss MacSwiney, sister of the late lord mayor of Cork, who died in a hospital.

Thousands of persons, most of them bearing flags, surrounded National university building as Dail Eireann met. They evidently hoped a decision would be forthcoming quickly and that announcement of it would be made before the afternoon was over.

Most of the 120 members of Dail Eireann slipped into the building unrecognized.

Of 1918 Battle Front

PARIS, Dec. 14.—Among the ceremonies to celebrate Armistice Day in France was the laying of the first of the commemorative stones which the Touring Club of France is going to place at the points on all roads of France where they cross the line of the battle front of 1918.

These stones are in the form of a four-sided truncated pyramid with a poul's helmet on top, crowned with laurels. On the sides are granades from which more laurels spring, and the principal side facing the front bears the inscription, "In French, 'Here the invader was driven back 1918'."

This first commemorative stone was inaugurated at Chateau-Thierry by a representative of the Minister of War in the presence of the military attaches of all Allied countries.

BERKELEY PLANS CHRISTMAS TREE AGAIN THIS YEAR

Appeal for Funds Sent Out;
$1500 Is Needed by Committee.

BERKELEY, Dec. 14.—The fame of Berkeley's "municipal" Christmas celebration held each year for hundreds of children of the city has extended throughout this country and foreign lands, according to A. A. (Scotty) Allen, driver of famous Alaskan dogs, who acted as chief Santa Claus for several years. Allen has received numerous letters from all parts of the world congratulating him on the appearance of his dogs and the Berkeley idea of the fete. The municipal celebration this year on December 26 is planned to be bigger and better than ever.

There will be candy and toys and a Christmas tree and Christmas music with Santa Claus and all that goes to make a really happy Christmas for Berkeley children.

SPECIAL HOMES BUILT FOR U. S. MEN IN COBLENZ

COBLENZ, Dec. 14.—Apartment houses built by the municipality of Coblenz, aided by the German government, were opened recently for accommodation exclusively of officers of the American forces in Germany and their families. The purpose of the houses is to relieve the crowded condition of the city, which has been a problem ever since the Allied troops reached the Rhine.

There are 82 apartments of five rooms each and all modern conveniences in the new buildings now being taken over by the American families. Work on these apartments was started about two years ago to alleviate the German's acute "no roof is large enough to cover two families." Additional quarters for non-commissioned officers and their families are also under construction.

SAXON ARMS SEIZED.

DRESDEN, Dec. 14.—The authorities have confiscated here and in Gundersdorf large stores of arms belonging to athletic clubs and student societies, which have secretly been working for a monarchist rebellion.

ACTIVITIES WOMEN

Doll Sale to Aid Children's Christmas Fund

Christmas tree celebrations at the different relief homes and hospitals are the chief concern of the social set at this time of the year. At the Baby Clinic the children will have their first tree—Christmas trees have gone up in the hospital hallways and those a bit older. Stockings will be filled and placed in every crib where some forty odd sick babies lie day after day. At the hospital are many motherless little ones who through the steady care of the nurses are gradually being nursed back to normal state of health. But for the happy Christmas Day plans are made to progress. The Junior Auxiliary has done its duty in erecting a splendid gymnasium for the children near the clinic which will be fully equipped.

Memorial to Honor 'Mother' Of Red Cross

By EDNA B. KINARD.

A Jane Delano Memorial is the newest project undertaken by the registered nurses of the state that will be the Delano's vision that brought the Red Cross Public Nurse and the organization of Red Cross nurses into being. State and district committees have been organized to collect the funds for the memorial and appeals have been sent to all the registered nurses in California in the interest of the monument.

Ten years before the World War Jane Delano organized the Red Cross Nurses. This was the able to respond to emergency calls from all parts of the world where famine, fire, flood or pestilence was disastrous. To her vision is accredited the record of 8000 American nurses mobilized and ready for duty at the nation's first call in 1917, and 37,000 serving for country and humanity all over the world since.

Not alone did Miss Delano organize the Nursing Service of the American Red Cross, but she conceived the various districts that served. The Home Defense and Special departments were created, that all nurses might be available, and she inaugurated the educational work through which the nurses and the lay women might be qualified in time of need. She started the Rural nurse plan, dreaming that the Red Cross Public Health Nurse some day would be found in every city in the world. For ten years she served without remuneration save the satisfaction of her achievement.

Gifts to the Memorial may be made by the public through the members of Alameda County Nurses Association.

Mrs. Anne Ryan, head social worker for the state board of health in Oakland, will be the speaker to-night before the monthly meeting of District No. 1, Alameda County Nurses Association. The program and business meeting is announced for 8 p. m. in the Y. W. C. A.

Christmas stories of famous writers were reviewed this afternoon by members of the Modern Authors section of the club, when Mrs. W. W. Blair, curator, entertained the club-women at her home in Vernon street. The entire program was inspired by the Yuletide approach.

Monday, January 8, will launch a new section in Oakland Center, California, Civic League of Women Voters, under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Billie E. Dyer. A series of publicity, particularly as it applies to the written word, will be undertaken by the club-women. Presidents and publicity chairmen in organized groups will be invited to become members of the section which launches a new movement in Northern California. Newspaper women of the city will direct the study. At a preliminary meeting this week, outline of a course was adopted which will vary practice work in news preparation with lectures. The section will meet on the second and fourth Mondays of each month at Hotel Oakland.

The Social Function of the Fine Arts was discussed this afternoon by members of a study section in the local branch of the American Association of University Women, devoted to recent developments in education. Dr. S. S. Schilder furnished the basis for the consideration to-day. The group met in the headquarters, 338 Kearny street, San Francisco.

Because completion of the new Salvation Army building in Fruitvale has been delayed, Fruitvale Women's Club, which had expected to assist in a home-warming, will take its Christmas party to the Bruahl Home tomorrow. A holiday "shower" for the household which centers about the young mother and her babe is scheduled by the club.

Mrs. Grant D. Miller, chairman of literature, Alameda district, C. P. W. C. reader; Miss Mary Elizabeth Jamp, violinist; Miss Ruth Riley, vocalist, will contribute the hours' program.

MINISTERS HEAR PARDEE TALK ON COUNTY DIVISION

Questions Are Asked Speaker But No Action Is Taken.

The Oakland Ministers' Union was asked to support county division at the regular monthly meeting of the organization held in the Y. W. C. A. building yesterday. Despite the fact that the speaker, Dr. George C. Pardee, made the request that the ministers back the plan to divide Alameda county, no action was taken. The ministers have agreed to hear a discussion of the other side of the question.

Pardee based his argument on what he termed "the necessity for spanking Emeryville," claimed that the separate city and county of Oakland would elect better men to office than a city with practically the same boundaries and made the guess that "a lot more than a million dollars" would be saved in taxes. The figure of savings which he produced was so high that he used in the last campaign when he was urging the consolidation of the eleven cities and towns in Alameda county.

Following the address Dr. Pardee threw the meeting open to questions and the ministers present showed by their interrogations their intelligent interest in the question.

MONEY FOR SCHOOLS.

It was said that $3 per cent of the tax paid in Oakland goes for salaries and expenses of Rev. John Stane of the First Baptist Church.

"How much of that goes to the schools?"

"Not very much," Dr. Pardee answered.

"Then in reality," said Dr. Stane, "it is 27 per cent that goes to the salaries and overhead."

Dr. Pardee explained the proposals that would appear on the ballot and reviewed the campaign history.

"The city of Oakland," he said, "would include Emeryville and Heaven knows she should be included. We want to make that city a little more decent. We should take it over our government knee and spank it."

"I worked hard for the present charter but like all others it fails when we can't get the right men in office."

The speakers then made the statement that the Legislature, "without consulting us at all, fixed the salary roll and employee list in Alameda county."

"I ask you in the name of Oakland," he said, "to do what you can to influence your people to give us a city and county and take it out of the hands of the minors and the state legislature. The boys tell me that they can get everything they want in Emeryville. Gambling is going on all over and bootlegging is going on because the bootleggers have a connection, direct or indirect, with the city hall."

PLAN FOR ELECTIONS.

"I checked me when I first saw that the plan called for election by districts. But do you know what that will do? It will prevent the control of the election by organization. We have a democratic system here. New York has its Tammany Hall and Chicago has with the gentlemen who control the political destinies of that city."

"I don't say the men are bad, but the system is the same. When we elect our councilmen by districts, Piedmont and the hill section, where the people think they are the best citizens of Oakland, will elect one councilman in West Oakland and mind you I do not say there are no good men in West Oakland, there are lots of them—they will elect its own councilman."

The speaker was asked how it happened that Oakland was to have its present boundaries, that a sheriff was needed under the new plan and replied that the sheriff, under the state constitution, was not elected by the court and could not be dismissed with.

"While Dr. Pardee said in his speech to the ministers that "a lot more than a million dollars" would be saved by the county division scheme, his speech, as sent out today by the publicity department of the Charter League, put the figure at "more than half million dollars," the league taking the responsibility of editing the speaker's copy to the extent of lopping off $500,000.

WARRANT SERVED ON MAN IN COURT

MARYSVILLE, Dec. 14.—F. Wing, merchant of Sacramento, was arrested here on a charge of forgery on a warrant issued July 16 last. He was held under $10,000 bonds.

His arrest came when he appeared in court here in a civil suit brought against him by Mrs. Christine Blake of Marysville, who brought more than $1,000 in damages to her firm to Wing and five others Chinese.

The forgery charge grew out of Wing's alleged forged name of Mrs. Blake's name to a receipt for the money, which he is said to have collected from his partners, who are now suing him for $2000 each.

Cascade Stairway Contract Is Let.

The contract for building the cascade stairway down the steep slopes on the northeast shore of Lake Merritt was awarded yesterday by the board of park directors to F. J. H. Austin for $75,758.

The cascade stairway is the dream of Landscape Architect Howard Gilmer and is planned to be one of the show places of the district, as it will tumble down a slope which is now bare. The cascade, a succession of little waterfalls, will run between two stairways. Water supplies for operating the device are being arranged for.

S. S. California to Lead Fleet Soon

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—Official announcement has been made by Admiral E. W. Eberle that the superdreadnaught California is to become the flagship of the Pacific fleet at San Pedro on December 20.

President's Report

President Magoon's annual report in part reads:

"The close of the year shows greater stability and a better outlook for 1922. Caution, as well as courage, must still be necessary, but the majority of conditions are approaching normal conditions, notably becoming more apparent and definite."

Although building costs continue to rule high, building of homes has gone forward in good volume. For the entire year the territory of Oakland East of Lake Merritt has made a particularly fine showing.

"For the past six months almost 50 per cent of all the new building in the city of Oakland has been East of Lake Merritt.

This means proportionate increase in population and a larger development of retail business. During the past year the East Side Board of Trade has been on the alert to guard the interests of this territory.

NAVY BASE WORK.

Early in the year it took up the matter of the Alameda Naval Base, through the courtesy of the Chamber of Commerce of Oakland, placing a representative of the Board of Trade on the active committee and doing all possible to influence official action. Moved for an audit of the books of the Board of Education, which was finally accomplished.

Among its general activities the East Side Board of Trade supported the Playground Amendment to the city charter, opposed the budget item on the high pressure water system until insurance rates were lowered, promoted the closing of East Park, and the successful opening of East Ninth and East Tenth Streets to permit expansion of the Prince Canning Company, supported the Council in securing the pavement of Fruitvale avenue by the Traction Company, secured additional help in the Fruitvale postoffice; took up the opening of East Twelfth street, presented a petition before the Railroad Commission for street car service by the Southern Pacific from Fourteenth and Franklin via Webster street, Seventh street through East Oakland to Duton avenue, and is still behind the project, co-operated with the Leon Heights Improvement Club by joint committee in securing better service for Leon Heights and improved the maintenance of certain restrictions desired by people of the section; aided the Dimond Improvement Club in the matter of the Dimond postoffice and the paving of the Fruitvale avenue; successfully opposed zoning of certain territory directly in the path of the city expansion, especially organized a trade at home campaign which will come to development during the coming year to the benefit of the merchants and people of this section; aided materially in the location of the Severin Motor Company in East Oakland, and in the paving of East Fourteenth street to Dimond factory, in co-operation with the Chamber of Commerce promoted the program of development by the U. S. Government of the inner harbor of Oakland along the East Oakland estuary and tidal canal toward San Leandro bay.

On its directorate the East Side Board of Trade has representative from the Elmhurst Community Club, the Elmhurst Exchange League, the Dimond Improvement Club, the Leon Heights Improvement Club and the Dimond Progressive Club for the purpose of actively aiding the people of every section of the East Oakland territory by placing behind any progressive movement or guidance of any kind the cause supported by the whole of this Oakland represented. This has been very effective in bringing the people together and in unitizing club activities.

EAST SIDE BOARD OF TRADE CLOSES PROFITABLE YEAR

12,000 Population for San Leandro Forecast

"Twelve thousand in 1926" is J. E. Paulson's prediction concerning the population of San Leandro. This is based on a present population of 6,000 and 100 per cent growth in five years. "Our growth is influenced by the remarkable fact that building permits in eleven months of 1921 aggregate $440,000."

"The main causes of growth in this city are as follows: Fine climate with absence of fog and strong winds; good conditions for the man who wants to raise vegetables at his home; a large number of poultry centers, location of new factories and increased capacity of those already established; unusually low tax rate. A number of the general staff and many employees have already purchased homes in San Leandro. This is an indication of the substantial class of citizens that are being attracted to this progressive city of thirty people."

East-of-Lake Region Growth Is Extensive

A. C. Meadows, Melrose shoe merchant, who has just completed remodeling his store at 4417 East Fourteenth street, had the following to say when asked his opinion concerning the growth of the East of the Lake region:

"Few people realize the extensive growth that has already taken place here or what it portends for the future. Having been located on East Fourteenth street for fifteen years, I have studied its development with much interest.

"The main causes of growth in this city are as follows: Fine climate with absence of fog and strong winds; good conditions for the man who wants to raise vegetables at his home; a large number of poultry centers, location of new factories and increased capacity of those already established; unusually low tax rate. A number of the general staff and many employees have already purchased homes in San Leandro. ## CLOGGED BLOOD WITHERS THE BODY

Workers Sick and Weak
From Exertion Take
Gude's Pepto-Mangan

Men and women who toil, either physically or mentally, use up energy. When they overwork they use up more energy, and sometimes the blood gets in a run-down condition. Without rest the blood cannot get back to normal, so that it becomes clogged with waste matter.

The clogged blood virtually withers the body. The strained looks on pale faces, the thin, bloodless arms, the sunken cheeks and necks, the dead-tired feeling are the results of stale blood depriving the system of life-giving oxygen.

Workers go to the drug store and get Gude's Pepto-Mangan when they are weak and tired down. When they are electric they like or take tablet form. This makes the blood rich and red and drives out the poisons. Life-giving oxygen, carried by the little red cells, renews the strength and builds up the system. Look for the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" on the package. Advertisment.

NAVAL PERSONNEL PRODUCTION HITS PACIFIC DIVISION

1075 to Be Dropped From the Crews and 175 From Staff of 12th District.

America's first blow at naval armament was felt here today with the receipt of orders calling for large cuts in the enlisted personnel of the navy to reduce the strength to that authorized by congressional appropriation.

The orders call for a total reduction of 10,000 enlisted men in the entire navy, and will necessitate the release of approximately 800 men stationed with the Pacific fleet and the immediate discharge of 275 men attached to the destroyer division of the same fleet. In addition, orders provided for the release of 175 men stationed with the twelfth naval district with headquarters in San Francisco.

The Atlantic fleet was the hardest hit. Two thousand men will be turned out of this division of the navy and the orders provide for the probable laying up of several battle ships of the Atlantic fleet because of lack of crews.

Today naval authorities announced that for the 800 men to be released from the Pacific fleet under the reduction orders the following schedule would prevail: Three hundred and eighty-one men to be taken from mine squadrons, 48 men to be taken from destroyers, 48 men to be taken from mine squadrons, 23 men to be taken from air forces, 78 men to be taken from the train force.

Announcement was made today by officers of the Pacific fleet super-dreadnaughts, now anchored in San Francisco bay, that the reductions will not result in placing any of the vessels out of commission.

$150,000 NEEDED FOR SURVEY ON S. F. BAY BRIDGE

Next Step in Project Will Be Considered at Meeting
Expected Soon.

The next step in the bridge-the-bay project is to be considered at a meeting to be called soon by the general conference committee in San Francisco. It is estimated that $150,000 will have to be raised to be paid by John V. Davies and Ralph Moleski, the engineers who made the preliminary survey some months ago.

According to the plans as laid down, the counties on either side of the bay will be asked to share the expenses of this survey. In San Francisco supervisors have committed that cost to its voters. In making the survey, the experts will take into account the new provisions of the War Department. The bridge will have to be built, if it is erected south of Hunters Point and south of the Alameda naval base site. The tunnel will be 3000 feet long instead of 2000 feet, and the minimum depth of the tunnel will be 50 feet, instead of 40 feet.

It is expected that the meeting of the committee will be held as soon as Chairman Richard Welch of San

CITY LIGHT ROW WAITS DECISION

REEDING, Dec. 14.—This city is in the anomalous position of having two concerns dispensing its light and power, and indications are the condition will exist until the decision of the State Railroad commission in San Francisco this week adjusts differences in purchase price of the city.

One dispensing is the city of Redding and the other the Pacific Gas and Electric company, both of which claim ownership and possession of the plant. Two sets of offices, officials, helpers and linemen are being maintained.

This decision is expected Thursday.

A Cozy Home and Happiness

Is the ultimate goal of most all of us.
Abounding wealth—luxury—pomp—a life of ease fade into insignificance when compared the joy of a cozy home, a loving wife and darling kiddies.

You can't buy Happiness with dollars any more than you can buy Love. But you can realize it all the sooner by choosing wisely those things that make for cozy homes.

For instance—hot water, steam or vapor heat.

DEATH RECALLS EXPERIENCES OF DONNER PARTY

Mrs. Frances Wilder of Byron
One of Few Surviving Members.

The recent death at Byron of Mrs. Frances E. Wilder, a daughter of Captain George Donner, has recalled the tragic story of the Donner party, 42 of whom perished in deserts and mountains in the winter of 1846-47, while en route to California. Only a half dozen survivors remain today to tell the tale of that most disastrous of all migrations of the Argonauts. In what they told, Mrs. Wilder said.

Among these half dozen are three sisters of Mrs. Wilder, children of the captain from whom the party took its name. They are Mrs. Eliza P. Houghton of Los Angeles, 78; Mrs. Lena App of Jamestown, Calif., 86; and Mrs. Elitha S. Wilder of Bruceville, Calif., 89. A daughter of James F. Reed, a member of the party, who faced the winter in the snow-capped Sierra mountains and then returned with relief for his dying companions, is living at Capitola, Calif. Her name is Mrs. Mattie Lewis and she is 77 years old.

Of all the companies that made their way by ox wagons on the Overland Trail across desert and mountain to California by the railroad and San Francisco West, the experiences of the Donner party were the worst.

There was the greatest loss of life, and it was attended by a slow starvation during the six months they were held in the High Sierras that finally drove the stronger members of the party to that last expedient of man-eating upon his own kind.

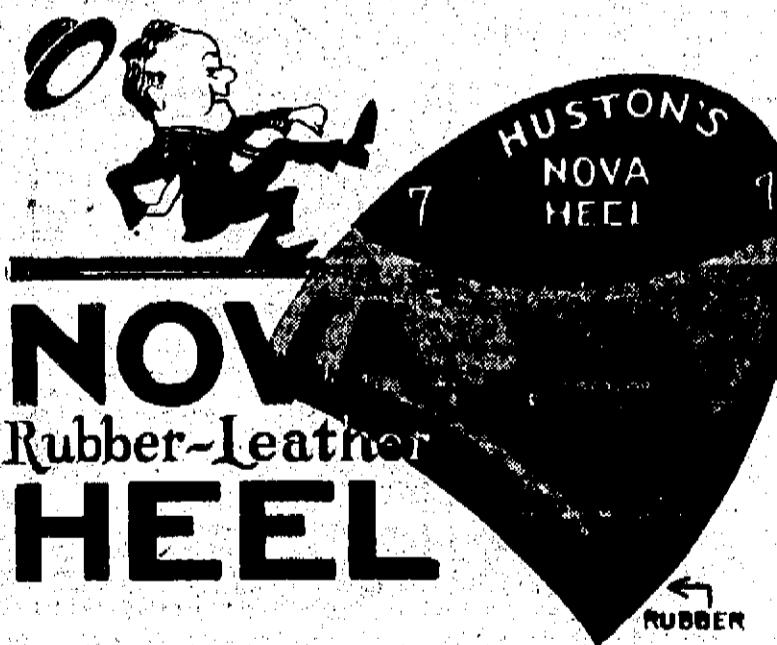

Of the 88 men, women and children that started with 42 joined the Donner party, 42 perished. Six died in the deserts of Utah and Nevada, and 36 succumbed to the horrors of the mountain camps.

All the suffering and loss of life may be ascribed to the primary mistake in taking a southerly course around the Great Salt Lake from Fort Bridger, Wyoming, instead of the usual course around the northern route. The rocky passes in the Wasatch mountains of Utah delayed them one month; the sands of the Great American Desert and the Humboldt Sink stalled their wagons and starved their cattle.

Beauty Hint for Women

For clear skin and bright eyes. Take Beecham's Pile. When food is only imperfectly digested, it gives rise to fermentation, clogs the bowels, and renders the blood impure. This results in dull eyes, mucky skin, blotches, pimples and other disfiguring marks. Beecham's Pile act immediately on the stomach, liver and bowels; regulate them and keep them in a vigorous condition. They are mild, harmless and dependable. They are compounded of remedies of vegetable origin having great medicinal value.

DR. COFFEE TALKS AT AD. LUNCHEON

An Oakland luncheon club which held a luncheon meeting on President Roosevelt's birthday, October 27, and which took no steps during the meeting to honor the dead President was severely criticized yesterday for its failure to display any sign of observance of the day by Dr. Rudolph Coffee, rabbi of Temple Sinai. He spoke before the Oakland Advertising club, and was a guest of the club which he said failed to observe the birthday of America's dead President.

Dr. Coffee also assured the Oakland clubs which carry no ministers upon the rolls, "America is marching on," he said, "and a minister today has a place in any and all organizations."

PRAISES PACIFIC PACT.

The subject of Dr. Coffee's talk was on "The Disarmament Conference." Mr. Daniel C. Tracy, Secretary of State Hughes became an integral when he constructed and presented to the conference the pieces of paper—the like of which the world has never known—which resulted in the four power agreement in the Pacific.

America, he declared, has been marching on, setting the pace of the world, and the disarmament conference as well as our participation in no war were factors which contributed to making the rest of the world to realize America's ability to think and to plan ahead for the betterment of mankind.

During the course of Dr. Coffee's talk he paused on local conditions, and declared, "The Better Business Men of Oakland are asleep. Freight from the Orient shipped east is being unloaded at San Francisco, reloaded onto barges and the like and brought across the bay to Oakland. These freighters are not loaded, but are unloaded in San Francisco, but should be brought to Oakland's wharves and unloaded where they are again loaded onto the cars. The business men of this city are asleep to let such a condition continue."

ALL SHOULD BE AT WORK.

There is no excuse in the United States for unemployment, Dr. Coffee said. The essential thing to cope with the unemployment of the future, he declared, is to bring a healthy and strongacco of citizens into our next generation. The next step will come within the next few years, and in years to come it will be a disgrace to a city to have unemployed men.

Others who spoke were Charles E. Wahn of the Listo Pencil company of Alameda, and Coroner Grant D. Miller, who appealed to the advertising men to cooperate in spreading the gospel of caution among drivers of automobiles. Miller has undertaken a campaign to help reduce the number of automobiles accidents.

Women's Rights 'All Bunk' Say Fair S. J. Motorists

SAN JOSE, Dec. 14.—Who said that "equal rights for women" is all that it's cracked up to be?

That's what Muriel Webster and Gladys Mason, two comely young San Jose girls, desire to know.

Personally, they think "equal rights are the proverbial bunk."

A certain incident occurring on the San Jose-Santa Cruz highway, high up in the hills of the Santa Cruz mountains, later yesterday, caused their views to become solidified and otherwise strengthened.

The two young women were riding in this city in an automobile owned and driven by Miss Webster when, at a lonely point in the road, their automobile blew a tire.

It was one of those sorrowful occasions when even the daintiest of motorists can not avoid, and Miss Webster and her companion looked up at their flat tire.

As they stood so engaged in visualizing their misfortune a second machine approached the spot. Miss Mason noticed that on the side of the approaching car, in which were two men of probably 40 years, was a sign reading "Automobiles of Automobiles." She determined that surely these gentlemen would aid two damsels in distress and a moment later she accosted them.

"We are in trouble, sir," she declared, addressing the driver of the machine.

"Would you be so kind as to help us just a little with this tire?"

The driver of the automobile looked sternly at the young woman.

"Do you girls vote?" came his query.

"Oh, yes, sir," replied the two in unison "We both vote."

"Well, you can't do other things than men do now, so let your own tire."

Whereupon the men resumed their journey toward this city. The girls, suffering the pains of equal rights, fixed the tire.

Hayward Women to Ask Protection for Children

HAYWARD, Dec. 14.—Believing that prevention is better than the cure, the Hayward Center, California Civic League, at its regular meeting yesterday, authorized a committee to be formed to demand the creation of special warning signs to mark the location of schools in this city.

The recommended signs are the same as those used in other municipalities reading "School—Go Slow."

Many complaints have been heard by the Civic League regarding the lack of drivers of motor vehicles in the school districts especially in the vicinity of the John Gamble school. The league will also recommend the enforcement of the warning in the event that the signs are placed, Miss L. M. Turner, president of that organization said.

The meeting of the Civic League here yesterday closed with a general discussion of certain legislative measures and a number of local business men were appointed to a committee which will confer with the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce in regard to the coming annual dinner of that organization.

Although it is not the desire of the Associated Charities to quote special cases, Mrs. William T. Knights, chairman of that organization stated today: "The Associated Charities are aware of at least six families who are confined to their homes on account of the lack of proper clothing. Many children are out of school. Many are sick. This year has been hard for the laboring man dependent on day work. Many families have no provider or means of earning money. In some cases people in this community lack furniture and other necessities."

Knights' statement was in line with the general appeal of the charitable organization for food, clothing and money.

The workers of the combined women's clubs are gathering daily at the headquarters over the Reid drug store on B Street. Donations will be accepted there or at the Hayward Center, Office of the Civic League.

A third headquarters has been opened on Castro street in the building formerly occupied by the Welch cabinet works.

Members of Alameda Lodge, No. 167, F. & A. The installation is the big event of the year, officers of all three lodges taking the chairs to which they have been elected recently. R. O. Moyer, retiring master, is in charge of the preparations on the part of the local lodge. Chairman of the State will be present.

Officers of Alameda lodge who will be installed Saturday night are R. O. Moyer, retiring master; George Helwig, master; H. B. White, senior warden; A. Glonley, junior warden; Eggers, treasurer; P. O. Moyer, secretary. Alameda lodge will confer the third degree at a meeting Thursday night.

The Custom of the Country.

I can remember when, in one of the mountain counties of Kentucky, there was only one sewing machine and not a single cooking stove. Things have changed there since. The railroads, bringing with them civilization and its by-products, have crept up through the gaps; the feuds have died out; schoolhouses have sprung up; there are live newspapers, even modern systems of living.

But these things mark the transitions of recent years. It is so very long ago that life was primitive. They used to a story to illustrate how primitive things actually were, may not have been true. Probably it wasn't, but at any rate it was an illustration, even though an exaggerated one, prevalent condition.

There was a narrow-gauge, jerk-water road which skirted the knobs about the feet of the mountains. One day a train—there was only one train a day, each way—was moving slowly upgrade when the engineer halted his locomotive to let a cavalcade cross the track ahead of him. First streaked past a pack of hounds, all baying merrily. Behind the dogs followed men, on horseback and mule-back, loping at top speed and cheering the hunt on with shrill barks and blasts from a horn. The troupe had vanished into the deep timber bordering the right-of-way when a southern man, riding in the shabby day-coach, addressed a cow passenger who was a native.

"Sheriff's posse, I suppose?" he said.

"Nope," said the mountaineer.

"Perhaps your people are seeking to lynch somebody?" gested the Northerner.

"No," "taint that neither."

"Then may I ask what is the purpose—the intent—of this se?"

"Well, mister," said the native, "it's like this: Judge Simthower's oldest boy, Simmy Junior, comes of age today and they're runnin' him down to put pants on him."

Gwan-to-Bed Stories.

The Darling Little Umbrella Named Gulliver.

ONCE upon a time, dear children, there was a darling little umbrella named Gulliver. It's mamma named him Gulliver because he was such a great traveller. (Johnny, get off the piano.) Gulliver had more owners than a second-hand Ford. He was continually passing on. No sooner would he begin to get acquainted with new owner than somebody else would swipe him and he would be off to start all over getting acquainted in a new household with a new family.

Now even this unsettled life wouldn't have bothered Gulliver so much. He was used to unsettled things: unsettled weather, unsettled ownership, unsettled home life—everything around Gulliver was unsettled. No, that didn't bother him so much, but what did worry him and make him sad was the fact that he was never allowed to see the bright side of life. Gulliver loved to see the sun shine and hear the little birds twitter, but he never had the chance. Whenever the sun was shining, Gulliver was locked up in the house. But just as soon as it began to cloud up and rain down, then Gulliver was dragged out into the nasty, dirty weather. As he used to sing in his plaintive umbrella tenor:

"Into each life some rain must fall all the time."

But why in the deuce do I get it all?"

(Dorothy, take the baby's foot from under daddy's rocker. It disturbs him.)

One day when Gulliver came back from a trip in the rain, he found lovely little parasol in the rack. She was made of bright silk and the prettiest thing Gulliver had ever seen. Of course he fell madly in love with her, but she drew away from him. "Why do you turn me?" cried Gulliver.

"Go away from me," said Lucinda, for that was her name. "Go away from me, you're all wet."

"But that merely shows I've been doing my duty," said Gulliver. "You wouldn't have me shirk my duty, would you?"

"I should worry," said Lucinda, pertly, and she tossed her head, which was of solid ivory, beautifully carved.

"Very well, then," said Gulliver sadly, "maybe you'll get caught in the rain some day and maybe you'll not be so haughty."

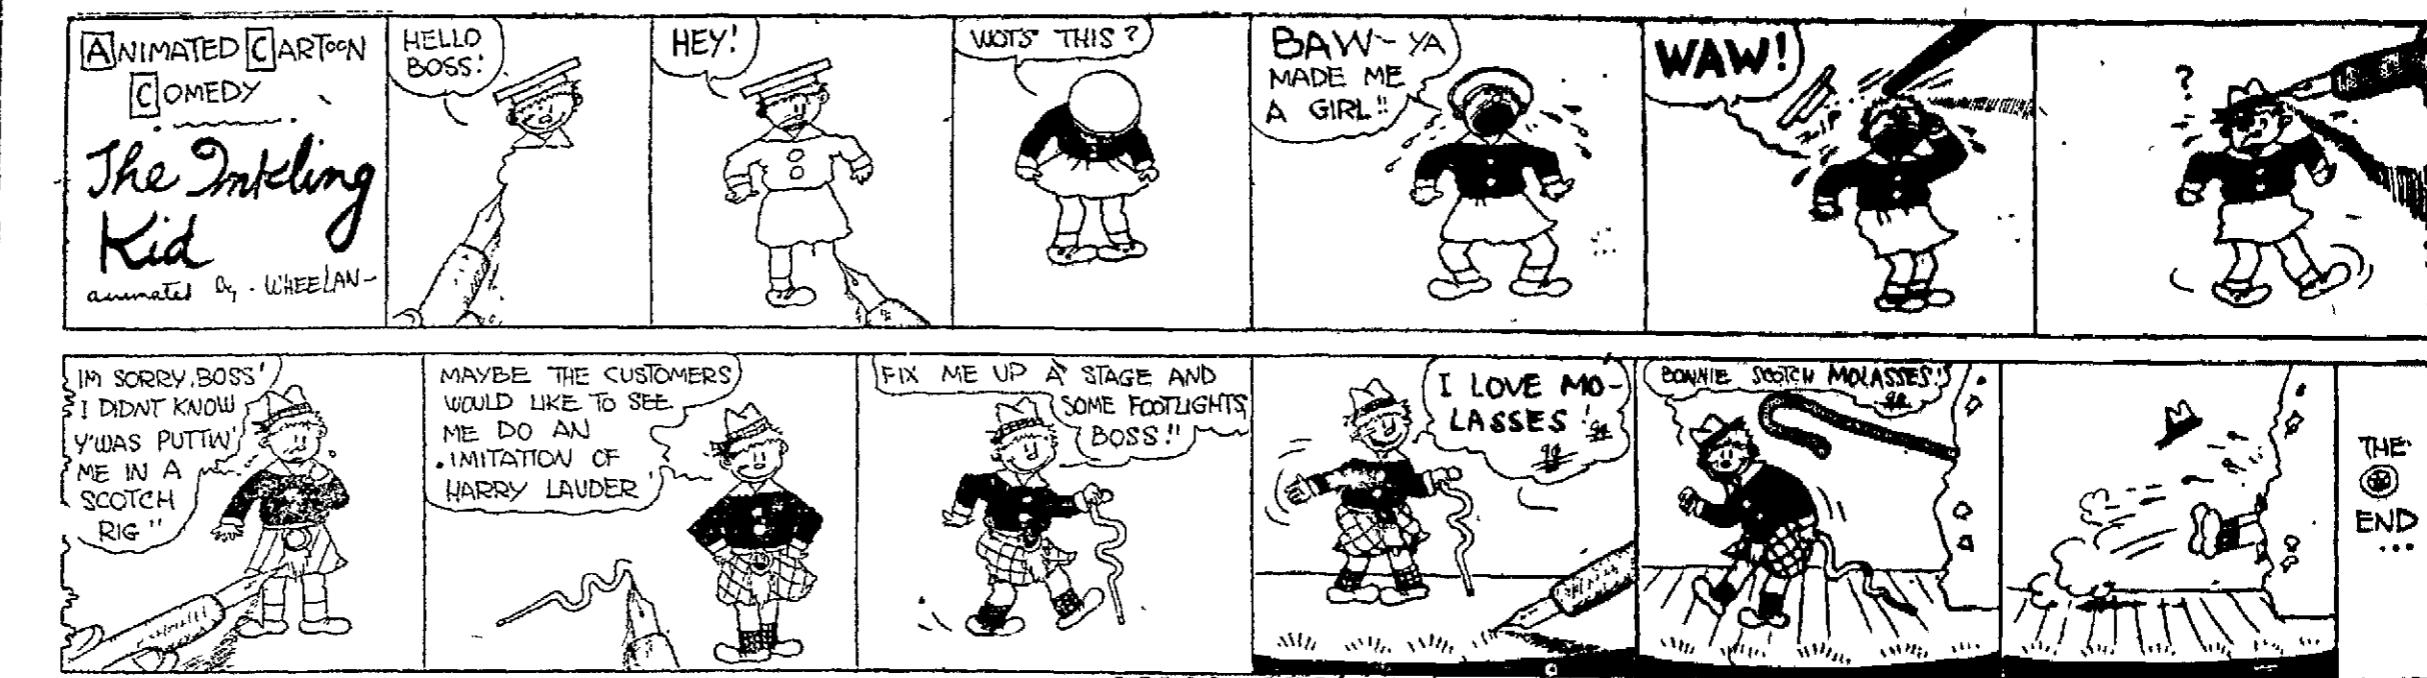

And sure enough that very next day she got caught in the rain, and when she was brought in and placed beside Gulliver, she was the most pitiful, most bedraggled little parasol you ever saw. Then Gulliver, seeing how forlorn and helpless she looked, took her in his arms and kissed her, and after that they were the best of friends, until one day soon after Gulliver was swiped in a cafeteria by a man who wore a brown derby and who had just eaten 48 cents worth of roast beef and mashed potatoes. And that's the end of the story. Good to bed.

Friendliest terms are cash on delivery. Sweet home, now spelled home, sweet home. The fleets are scrapped, perhaps the taxpayer will dread it. Great many people think they are tactful when they are really liars. The quality that kids you into thinking you like the same she uses. And then, the money saved by disarming will come in handy for propaganda. This sophisticated age, the young people never hold hands as they are bridge hands. People who send you monthly bills show all the fervor of other collectors of antiquities. And the time a boy gets over being proud of his muscle, he has to think he understands women. And this, the steps saved in the kitchen are wasted in the room when the phonograph is started.

Uncle Wiggy Stories

by Howard D. Garrison

"Bless my whiskers!" howled the bad chap

UNCLE WIGGILY AND CURLY'S CANDY.

Once upon a time, when Uncle Wiggy was out hopping through the woods, he discovered a rabbit had gone for Christmas, and if he would have an adventure that day, he chanced to reach the house where lived Curly and Floppy Twitsytail, the piggle boys.

"I think I'll stop and see them," said the rabbit gentleman to himself. "It's after school, for the lady mouse teacher, for the children go home early, and on account of examinations. So Curly and Floppy will be home all right."

The hunting uncle knocked at the door, and, jumping up, he was borne into the room with his red, white and blue striped-rheumatism crutch. Uncle Wiggy heard noises in the piggle house, but no sooner had he knocked than he heard a noise, and all was as quiet as a hard-boiled egg.

"Hum!" said Uncle Wiggy to himself, as he listened to the quietness. "Some one was in there, but I stopped to eat, and was talking when I knocked. I hope the burglar Fox hasn't gotten in. I'll knock again."

Uncle Wiggy tapped once more, and then he heard some whispering voices say:

"It's all right! It isn't Mother; it's Uncle Wiggy."

Looking out at a window, the bunny gentleman saw Curly and Floppy dancing down at him. The faces of the piggle boys were rather sneaky and sticky, and Curly had a long-handled stick.

"Wait a minute, Uncle Wiggy, I'll open the door," squeaked Floppy. "We thought you were our mother coming home."

"You don't mean to tell me you had the door locked so your mother couldn't get in, do you?" asked Mr. Longears.

"Yes, I mean yes, sir, we did," answered Curly, as he and his brother let Uncle Wiggy in. "We see we didn't want her to come in before we locked it, and she could it, we hadn't locked the door. We didn't want her to come in again."

"Why not?" asked Uncle Wiggy.

"Well—you see—cause I'm making some candy," answered Curly, "and the door would be open if I'd left it open, and we upset a little molasses too, and then the chocolate dropped and I broke an egg, and on the window sill over there."

"Wait a minute," interrupted Uncle Wiggy. "The kitchen must be a sight!"

"You ought to see!" squeaked Floppy, laughing. "Come on, and see!"

"Uncle Wiggy looked. It was worse than he had feared. Broken dishes, sugar, egg shells, molasses and chocolate were all over the floor, and on tables and chairs."

"Oh, I never made candy before," explained Curly.

"I could easily tell you, hadn't I spoken to Uncle Wiggy, supposititiously?"

"Uncle Wiggy, you shouldn't have tried to make candy when your mother was out."

"Well, she wouldn't let me make it when she was home, so I had to make it when she was away."

"She changed the subject even as he murmured his thanks."

Barry was entirely ignorant of things theatrical and Alice Delmar was telling him which of the plays in London he should see.

"Now, Mr. Barry, would you care to come to the Palladium with my aunt and me tomorrow night? We've got some seats, and aunt is most awfully keen."

"I can't think of anything to do but to go to the Palladium with Richard," said Barry.

"There are two of them!" he exclaimed, loudly. "In that case, there! That is the girl who sold me to Delmar's. Ask her, if you like. Ask her! Ask her!"

"Margaret! You know that it's not true!"

"I suppose," Barry sneered, "that you have come here to inspect the most recent of your enterprises."

"What has come over you?" she asked, puzzled.

"I turned to his employer. "You ask me to tell you who he is, that has been working against me. One is here—this girl—Miss Kolos. She was at Delmar's. She typed out the details of my process. I was fore-staled by the New Dye Company."

"She is now with the New Dye Company."

"I see—I see—" Richard Delmar nodded, disconsolately. "There an ugly look came into his eyes. "You'll find it a change from—the mill," he said.

"I will. Good afternoon."

"No trouble over dye processes now, eh?" He flung after her. But she had moved quickly on her way, and with an oath Delmar went on his.

By Friday evening Barry had everything in readiness for John Quintus' friend, who was coming on Saturday. His last act was to test the stock work arrangement of a small metal box; then he stopped it and put it carefully away in his safe beside his notebooks and sheets of memoranda, and a sealed jar which contained a leaden coloured paste. This done, he set off homewards.

"I have," he said, "a pinwheel for her work-basket."

"I see—I see—" Richard Delmar nodded, disconsolately. "There an ugly look came into his eyes. "You'll find it a change from—the mill," he said.

"I will. Good afternoon."

"No trouble over dye processes now, eh?" He flung after her. But she had moved quickly on her way, and with an oath Delmar went on his.

Having spent a few minutes and a large amount of water on the laboratory floor, Tinker Dale shut and locked the door, switched off the light and directed the rays of an electric torch on the safe.

What Tinker Dale did not know about, was that the piggle boys had been driving him crazy.

"I have," he said, "a pinwheel for her work-basket."

INSTALLMENT NO. FOUR.

"I've heard all that I mean to hear for today," said Geler. "So please Get!"

There had been another witness of the scene in Geler's office that morning.

Opposite the building was an Italian restaurant. Edward Barry, seating himself at the window, gave an order to the waiter. In the offices opposite he saw Richard Delmar and Philip Tyson go into the room where Geler was and be greeted by him.

Suddenly before his eyes Margaret Kelsi appeared. Edward Barry saw her talking to Richard Delmar, and went on his way sick at heart because he had seen Margaret in the enemy's camp.

TEDDY O'HARA AND JOE HERRERA READY FOR BOUT TONIGHT

DEL HOWARD LOOKS TO CINCINNATI AND CHICAGO CUBS TO SEND PLAYERS TO THE OAKS

ALL DIVISIONS WILL BE REPRESENTED ON THE PROGRAM TONIGHT

Box Fighters, From Heavies to Banties, Are Paired Off for Scraps At the Auditorium.

By BOB SHAND.

Little gents with big wallop and big gents with bigger wallop will be put on display at the Auditorium tonight when Daddy Simpson offers his weekly hit party. The sockers start at the top with a pair of real heavyweights and taper right down to the featherweights and banties. There is the possibility of a K. O. in each of the seven battles and this feature is expected to attract some of the customers who have been saving their money for Christmas or something. The attendance at recent shows has dwindled quite a bit and Daddy Simpson is trying to find the reason. It was suggested that the fans liked the hard hitters so Tommy went forth and signed an honest-to-goodness set of sluggers. If the punchers don't get by he will try something else next week.

Of the seven battles on the program four or five of them could be considered main events, in fact a lot of clubs operating around here could use tonight's curtain raiser for a main event and get away with it. They can't get away with it though, because Henry Borsa is in a maln. even after Henry's recent fight. Tonight's headline will bring together O'Hara, "the Idol of the gallery," and Joe Herrera, the fastster from the wilds of North Beach. Herrera has been going good and figures to outbox the Watts Tract entry, but there is always the chance of a surprise. The chit and ending the festivities abruptly. Any time O'Hara hooks and connects something is going to drop and Herrera is not any tougher than he is. He has been perfecting a defense for the O'Hara hook, which is a wise idea, but even at that Joe will have to be very very careful. O'Hara never uses any modulus for skillful boxing, but he has brought home many a medal for soaking.

Billy Gibbs Will Make His Bow Here.

BOXING CHATTER

BOSTON, Dec. 14.—Pete Herman of New Orleans, former bantamweight champion, has broken his silence and determined to become a fixture every Wednesday night. Gibbs has been matched with Johnny Burns and the colored lad thinks the Fuller entry will be the best. Burns has been in the ring since he was a boy, three weeks ago when Gibbs took his decision from him across the bay. There is considerable feeling between the rival managers, Harold Fitzgerald, Battling Glibby, and Eddie Brooks. Fuller, Burns' manager, Frankie and Harold are about the same size and would prove a good curtain raiser. If Daddy Simpson can't get away with it, he will be paired off with a top or something and make 'em fight with their hands for a change.

Bert Tribby, the middleweight who gave Buck Holley a good fight a month ago, is being booked for San Francisco at tremendous expense. Tribby has a date with Al Delmar, a young man who has been doing some clever boxing across the bay. Tribby is a real fighter and has a wonderful knockout record down the valley. Some of his admirers want to see Tribby again against Holley again, but we will have to tick a few of the Delmar kind first.

Frankie Fuller Calls Up About J. Burns.

At this juncture, Frankie Fuller, manager of Burns, called up, "Put something in the paper for me, will you?" asked Frankie. "Sure thing, anything that is not libelous is the reply." "I'll do that," continued Frankie, "but I must say that Burns is going to make Gibbs jump over the ropes and then hop an easy decision. There's going to be nothing to it." "Do you think he will record with that team and have no affiliation with Thursday?" we asked.

"Surest thing you know," said the amiable young auto mechanic, "so I'll make him his bridges before he goes." After what happened to Bert Faunce last time he met George Gibbons, the boy must be a good-looking guy, taller and more rounded than the small heavyweight. Gibbons cracked Bert a real uppercut in the first round and it was the end of a terrible evening for the navy representative. Jimmy Ruland and Frank McLean, a team of little guys who have taken post graduate courses in the art of seckology, will meet in one of the preliminaries. Jimmy is a banty and Jackie Rybex and Billy Burg will open the show.

Intermediate Teams Make Fine Showing

Intermediate school is making a wonderful showing in basketball in the Grammar School League, the only one of the three divisions having twenty-three to their credit five have been forfeited to Intermediate, so that the boys have earned nearly all of their points. The boys have entered in Class B, C, D, E, F and G and at the present time all classes except G have a chance to play for the city championship, again. Ruland and McLean, who will be the champion in the Class G series, the only school east of the lake to beat the Intermediate teams in any class.

The following comprise the teams, the first five of which have qualified for the city championship, the last being eliminated.

Class A team—Wallace Latimer, George Good, Jack Close, Elward Hawthorne, Dwight Tardy.

Class C team—Jack Powers, Charles Klinckner, Robert Sachs, Everett Green, Vernon Strange, Rodney McPherson.

Class F team—Ellis Hill, Charles Price, Alfred Bartholemew, Dudley Brady, Beverly Dohrmann, Ernest Haines.

New Athletic Officer Appointed At Island

VALLEJO, Dec. 14.—Lieutenant Ross Skinner of the marine corps has been relieved as marine athletic officer and his place has been filled by Captain W. C. Gandy, who will develop a first-class base ball club this coming season.

VALLEJO, Dec. 14.—Walter Miller, 160, Los Angeles, middleweight boxer and Benny Reuben, 160, a boxer and a very good boxer, are preparing for their bout tonight.

CALIFORNIA CONSIDERING OFFER MADE TO PLAY HARVARD

RECORD OF WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON TEAM SHOWS PRESIDENTS ARE NIFTY AGGREGATION

OFFER FROM HARVARD TO CALIFORNIA FOR GAME IS CONSIDERED

Crimson Wants Bears in East on October 28th; Shift of Dates May Make It Possible

By DOUG. MONTELL.

The unexpected offer, made yesterday by Harvard University to Graduate Manager Lute Nichols of the University of California, proposing a game between California and Harvard to be played in the Harvard stadium on October 28th next year has given the authorities at the State university something else to worry over and will be the subject of discussion at a meeting of the athletic authorities immediately. No action will be taken until a thorough study of the situation is made, according to Graduate Manager Lute Nichols, to whom the offer was extended, but a decision will be arrived at before the time comes for California to leave for the south for her game with Washington and Jefferson. There are many things to be considered by California before acceptance of the offer from the Crimson is made and prospects do not appear too bright, from the present line-up of the Bears' 1922 schedule, to hold the game in the East.

There is no question but that California would like a chance to meet one of the big three and the Blue and Gold is perfectly willing to make the trip to Boston fields to meet the firs, but that isn't the question. Academic reasons are the hitch in the question on the part of the Crimson, and the only way to stand in the way of acceptance. Too many trips will not be sanctioned by any college for that reason, and in the case of California, the road counts for much and the men on the football team have to meet the same stiff academic requirements as all others attending the institution. It would be a hardship on the football players to be away from classes over any great length of time. The California athletes are proud of the record they have made on the field, but in classes, few of the men on the team fail to pass with very creditable standings, and some doing honor students in hard courses.

Bears Have Two Trips Already Planned.

California already has two road trips of a considerable distance booked for next year as a result of the schedule drawn at the meeting of the Pacific Coast conference on this land on December 14. Under this schedule California appears in Seattle, Wash., against the Sun Dodgers on November 11, and the Los Angeles on December 12. Under the date offered by Harvard, December 28, the date offered by Harvard, during the past season the Bears made but one trip, to Portland to meet the U. S. C. The schedule for next year is better in training than ever before and the California athletes hardly will hesitate before adding a transcontinental tour to the list of trips. It is true that the University student body are heartily in favor of an immediate acceptance, so anxious are they to show the East and the world that California football is on a par with that of the best in the East.

Date of U. S. C. May Be Used for Harvard.

There is another phase to be considered, California has the date of October 28th with U. S. C. in Los Angeles. That is the first game scheduled for U. S. C. thus far, although the southern college will undoubtedly take on one or two games with California colleagues before they meet the Bears. Whether or not U. S. C. would favor shifting her game with California and come ahead in the schedule is another matter to be considered. It is more than likely that should California desire to go East to meet Harvard on October 28th that the Trojans would accept to the arrangement made by the Bears to play the U. S. C. game on October 21. California has held the date of October 28th for a game to play the U. S. C. Portland against the Middle Western or Eastern team. It now appears doubtful whether or not that game will be scheduled, for Andy Smith yesterday said he had been informed that the date was to begin negotiations with the Bears to go to the first game of a home-and-home agreement.

Decision Will Be Held.

There is little thought that the Bears will attempt to drop any of the scheduled games to take on the University of California. It is not in the desire of the Berkeley authorities after their meeting to consider the proposal. The Bruins will undoubtedly hold on to their date with the Trojans on October 28th. California's game is to be the big football battle of the coast in 1922 and nothing will be permitted to come in to wreck it. It may be that action will be postponed to the committee and present their views on the subject in person. Telegraphic communication is very unreliable in this regard.

St. Mary's mentor is to be back in Berkeley, it is thought that the answer to Harward will be postponed until that time.

Boys Already Look For Workouts.

The Bears are not going to wait for Andy to return before donning the old working togs and getting into action. Yesterday afternoon the team, as far as the working members of a team of a month since the Stanford game. Some of the boys have been out for the past two days and are now making their examinations. They are gradually getting around and getting their hands on football to get the feel of things again. Don Nichols and Archie Nichols are not able to resist the temptation to go out and get their hands on the game and is able to talk personally to the committee and present their views on the subject in person.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Although wheat prices displayed a little firmness at the opening today, a little market soon weakened owing largely to the heavy rainfall in the South. The wheat crop and the presence of ample immediate supplies counted as additional bearish factors.

Besides, all the grain markets for Europe turned out to be which carried on unchanged figures to July higher with $1.11 to $1.12 and July $1.013 to $1.02. The market was held in a quiet, but steady, position.

Smallness of domestic demand had a bearish influence on corn. After opening unchanged to 3¢ lower, May 52¢ @ 52¢, the market continued to 52¢ @ 52¢.

Grains declined with other cereals starting at 4¢ off to a shade advance, May 27¢ to 27¢ 4¢ 3¢, and then went down again.

Expirations were dull but strength in the hog market tended to avert any material setback.

JUDGE DEMANDS
MYSTERY LIQUOR
SEIZURES' PROBE

Dooling Asserts Rare Spirits Vanish After Confiscation by U. S. Agents.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—The strange disappearance of large quantities of old and rare liquor after confiscation in raids by prohibition officers was commented upon today by Federal Judge Dooling, who intimated his desire that an inquiry be made to determine the circumstances under which the liquor disappeared.

At the same time it was learned at the federal building that the department of justice sleuths are likely to be called in to trace the huge quantities of the best liquors which mysteriously disappear after the court has convicted and punished the owners.

The case at bar today was that of Frank Young and Serio Battucchi of 2417 Powell street, both of whom were fined $500 for running an alleged illicit still. When they were arrested the officers found two 1000-gallon tanks filled with eight-year-old claret, 450 gallons of white wine, port, sherry and one-half cases of old tow whisky and 25 bottles of imported gin.

"What will become of this liquor?" Judge Dooling inquired of R. H. McCormack, assistant to the attorney general.

"The best of it, the government probably will sell to hospitals, drugists and physicians and the home-made liquor will be destroyed," replied McCormack.

"Have you ever heard of any institutions buying this liquor?" questioned the court.

"No, not since I have been in office," responded McCormack.

"It seems to be a book carried largely in paper, and I think that it exists largely on paper," declared the judge. "It seems that the longer the liquor is held the less there is of it. It is a matter I think should be looked into."

From other sources it was learned that in many instances of small quantities of the seized intoxicants have been booked as evidence against arrested persons.

Bradford Wanted

By L. A. Officers

L. A. Bradford, charged with having swindled Wm. Cavalier & Co. of Oakland out of $10,000 worth of Liberty bonds by means of a fictitious check, has been indicted in a similar charge in Los Angeles, according to information received by District Attorney Ezra Decoto from District Attorney Thomas Lee Woodbine of Los Angeles County. Woodbine telegraphed the information also to Decoto to oppose Bradford's being admitted to bail as the Los Angeles authorities will send a deputy sheriff to take him into custody. Decoto replied by telegraph that Bradford will be held for trial in Alameda county.

MAN ATTACKING
GIRL CONVICTED;
WIFE COLLAPSES

Roy E. Rogers, charged with attacking a 14-year-old girl, yesterday was convicted by a jury which deliberated less than an hour. He will be sentenced by Superior Judge Samuels on December 18.

When the jury's verdict was announced Rogers' wife created a scene in court by clasping him in her arms and crying loudly that she would "stick to him forever." Then she fainted.

Mrs. Rogers, mother of the complainant, witness, married Rogers in the county jail so she would not be forced to testify against the man who had been her husband.

Rogers and Mrs. Rogers had been living together as husband and wife for about six years. It is alleged, and have two children. The girl had been adopted by another couple.

Two Girls and Youth
Accused of Burglary

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—Two 18-year-old San Francisco girls, Grace Buchanan and Louise Kinsey, together with Orman Jauzel, 21 years old, were brought here from Los Angeles today and charged at the city prison with burglary. Neither of the young women would talk, declaring that they wanted to shield their families. The three were brought here by Detective James Gregson and are alleged to have rifled the fur store of Mrs. Leah Ringel, 1647 Height Street, on November 30. The officers claimed they have found nearly $1000 worth of furs in a cottage in a suburb of Los Angeles, obtaining a clew which led to the arrest of the two girls and the man.

DEATH STORY IS TOLD BY BRIDE,
DOCTOR'S SLAYER

Shackles Broken When She Kills Oppressor in Brooklyn, She Says.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Following eight years of suffering as her justification, Mrs. Charles P. Raizen today faced arraignment in Brooklyn court on a charge of killing Dr. Abram Gileckstein, aged 45, in his Bedford avenue office last Saturday. Surrendered to the police by lawyers representing her father and husband, last night, Mrs. Raizen, who is 29 years old and the wife of a toy manufacturer, to whom she was married last May, told her story to District Attorney Harry Lewis. With dry eyes and an air of self-control superior to that of any of her judges, she revealed the secrets of a life which she said had been made nearly unbearable by the physician.

She had known Gileckstein most of her life. He was her family's general practitioner in the Lower East Side of Manhattan, where she, then Lillian Schaffer, and her parents, as well as her husband, lived. He had been implicit trust trust, she told the district attorney, and exercised a supreme influence over her, a sort of magnetic influence, as she described it.

Mrs. Raizen said she struggled in vain to break the hold the physician had on her life. A year ago she thought she had succeeded. The relationship, which she said always had been against her will, ended about a year ago and she thought she was free.

On the eve of her marriage to Dr. Raizen, she said, Gileckstein reviewed his advances and attacked her in the office, where on Saturday she killed him.

NATIONALITY OF
BOOZE YACHT
IS DISPUTED

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—Federal and legal authorities today are endeavoring to establish whether the yacht Patria, owned by James Shawan, New York citizen, is of American or British registry. The fate of the vessel and ninety cases of liquor depends upon the verdict. The craft recently was seized in Monterey bay. Shawan has been charged with a violation of the prohibition law.

According to Attorney Gavin McNamee, representing Shawan, the vessel is British and therefore the ship and its cargo are bound for Britain.

Special Prohibition Agent A. B. Stroop asserts the vessel is of American registry, and therefore, with its owner, is subject to the provisions of the prohibition law.

A customs official says the Patria is a "ship without a country."

Adjournment of Congress from December 22 to January 3 is proposed in a resolution introduced in the Senate to the nomination of John C. McBride to be collector of customs at Juneau, Alaska.

JUNEAU OFFICER NAMED.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—President Harding today sent to the Senate the nomination of John C. McBride to be collector of customs at Juneau, Alaska.

The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill extending for eighteen months after the proclamation of peace the time for the establishment of claims against the alien property custodian for property seized during the war.

Charges that C. H. Beauchamp, now effecting an organization by which the department of agriculture will enforce the packer control law, was formerly prominent in the employ of the big packers, were made today by Walter R. Durand, general trade committee member. Beauchamp held important posts with the packers for 25 years and in 1916 was engaged in illegal price fixing in California, Durand alleged. Beauchamp testified in a hearing on the proposal to modify the packer control decree.

An appropriation of $20,000,000 would be available for the purchase of grain and other food products for distribution in the famine districts of Russia under a bill favorably reported today by the House foreign affairs committee.

Thirteen recommendations, including legalization of cooperative marketing combinations, lowering of import duties on certain agricultural products and establishment of agricultural attachés in European capitals are set forth in a report of the joint congressional commission of agricultural inquiry filed today in the Senate.

Appointment of a federal commissioner to act as chairman of the railroad commission was recommended by Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, New Mexico, Nevada, California and Arizona, which is to take up problems of utilizing and distributing of all water in the Colorado river basin, probably will be made within a week by President Harding. Governor Campbell of Arizona conferred with the President today and submitted a request in behalf of his and other states for the appointment of a federal member to the board.

Suggestion that any changes in national-wide freight rates, ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission, should be only for an experimental period of six months was made today by Alfred P. Thom, counsel for the Association of Railway Executives, appearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission when the investigation of the railroad situation was opened. Thom urged the argument of the railroads by requesting that the commission reopen hearings on western box car rates recently ordered reduced.
